

CREATION TO CHRIST

GOD CREATED THE HEAVENS & THE EARTH

Eric M. Hine Millersville Bible Church Oct. 10, 2021

In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.
Genesis 1:1

SIDE BAR: Prior to the material world we see, God created the _____, which, generally, is invisible to us (Job 38:4-7; Colossians 1:16; Revelation 5:11).

Angels were created to be God's _____ and _____ (Psalm 103:20-21; Colossians 1:16).

WHY GENESIS 1:1 IS PRIORITY #1 FOR THE BELIEVER AND WHY IT IS THE MOST OFFENSIVE VERSE IN THE BIBLE TO THOSE WHO REJECT IT:

- ★ It presents the God of the Bible as the _____ starting place for all things.
- ★ It presents God alone as _____ and _____. He is _____ and I am _____.
- ★ It has always been _____.
- ★ Creation comes to us _____.
- ★ We learn the world is not all about _____.
- ★ It means that, if I ever _____ with God, I am _____. There is absolute _____.

- ★ It means God is _____, and I am _____.
- ★ It sets the stage for Jesus' _____ to later be revealed (John 1:1-3).
- ★ It shows us why we need to know _____, and why we can only know Him through the submission of repentant faith.
- 🔑 What we _____ about _____ impacts everything else.
- 🔑 Scripture is the only _____ regarding I creation. We should be content to let _____ say what it says let everything else bow its _____ to Scripture.

SEVEN THINGS TO KNOW ABOUT GOD FROM THE CREATION ACCOUNT:

1. God created the universe out of _____.
2. God _____ and it _____.
3. God brought _____ out of _____.
4. God's creation was both orderly and _____.
5. His creation was _____ from the moment He spoke it into existence.
6. Everything God created was _____.
7. God shows His _____ for us through His creation.
