

The Story Continues

May 21, 2023 Acts 27 & 28 Pastor Todd McAllister

Introduction: _____ Acts 23:11-28:31

_____ the sovereignty of God

(AKA the “In-Chargeness of God”) Acts 27:1-28:16

“...you must testify also in Rome.” 23:11

“They delivered Paul and some other prisoners...” 27:1

“Soon a tempestuous wind, called a northeaster, struck down from land.”
27:14

“When we came into Rome...” 28:16

God’s plans cannot be stopped and His blessings are available despite the choices of other people.

Illustration: John 14:3; 16:33

_____ in persuasion 28:17-31

“He called together the local leaders of the Jews...” 28:17

“...testifying to the Kingdom of God and trying to convince them about Jesus both from the Law of Moses and from the prophets.” 28:23

(continued on other side)

The Story Continues (continued)

May 21, 2023 Acts 27 & 28 Pastor Todd McAllister

“...proclaiming the Kingdom of God and teaching about the Lord Jesus Christ with all boldness and without hindrance.” 28:31

God’s _____ for us is clear.

Illustration: Acts 1:7-8

The end but not the end: the _____ continues

We live between Pentecost and the Return of Christ.

Where do you _____ yourself in the story?

What word(s) would best describe you in the story?

The Story Continues

May 21, 2023 Acts 27 & 28 Pastor Todd McAllister

Introduction: imprisonment Acts 23:11-28:31

Experiencing the sovereignty of God

(AKA the “In-Chargeness of God”) Acts 27:1-28:16

“...you must testify also in Rome.” 23:11

“They delivered Paul and some other prisoners...” 27:1

“Soon a tempestuous wind, called a northeaster, struck down from land.”
27:14

“When we came into Rome...” 28:16

God’s plans cannot be stopped and His blessings are available despite the choices of other people.

Illustration: John 14:3; 16:33

Engaging in persuasion 28:17-31

“He called together the local leaders of the Jews...” 28:17

“...testifying to the Kingdom of God and trying to convince them about Jesus both from the Law of Moses and from the prophets.” 28:23

(continued on other side)

The Story Continues (continued)

May 21, 2023 Acts 27 & 28 Pastor Todd McAllister

“...proclaiming the Kingdom of God and teaching about the Lord Jesus Christ with all boldness and without hindrance.” 28:31

God’s purpose for us is clear.

Illustration: Acts 1:7-8

The end but not the end: the story continues

We live between Pentecost and the Return of Christ.

Where do you locate yourself in the story?

What word(s) would best describe you in the story?