

DONE WITH THEM?

ROMANS II:II

OCTOBER 27, 2024 PASTOR TODD MCALESTER

Introduction: Israel has persisted in being _____
(disobedient, contrary, stubborn...) Isaiah 65:1-2.

They have _____ the Messiah (Matthew 23:37-39).

A new love _____ has been established
(the Gentiles) Romans 10:19.

“Questions of the Day”

Question #1: I ask, then, has God _____ His people?

Answer: By no means!
God has _____ His people who He foreknew.

Reason: There is a _____ chosen by grace
“A small group of people who remain faithful to God amidst challenging circumstances.”

Two illustrations:

Paul’s conversion and heritage (11:1)

Elijah and the 7,000 (11:2-7)

Question #2: So I ask, did they stumble in order that they might _____?

Answer #2: By no means!
“Through their trespass salvation has come to the Gentiles, so as to make Israel jealous (11:11).

DONE WITH THEM?

ROMANS II:1-11

OCTOBER 27, 2024 PASTOR TODD MCALESTER

Introduction: Israel has persisted in being obstinate
(disobedient, contrary, stubborn...) Isaiah 65:1-2.

They have rejected the Messiah (Matthew 23:37-39).

A new love relationship has been established
(the Gentiles) Romans 10:19.

“Questions of the Day”

Question #1: I ask, then, has God rejected His people?

Answer: By no means!
God has not rejected His people who He foreknew.

Reason: There is a remnant chosen by grace
“A small group of people who remain faithful to God amidst challenging circumstances.”

Two illustrations:

Paul’s conversion and heritage (11:1)

Elijah and the 7,000 (11:2-7)

Question #2: So I ask, did they stumble in order that they might fall?

Answer #2: By no means!
“Through their trespass salvation has come to the Gentiles, so as to make Israel jealous (11:11).
