

“Going to the Dogs”

May 17, 2026 Mark 7:24-30 Pastor Todd McAllister

Who was going? Jesus:

- The _____ one Mark 4:41
- The questioned one Mark 2:7
- The endangered one Mark 3:6
- The _____ one Mark 3:21
- The _____ one Mark 1:45
- The _____ of God Mark 1:24

If someone asked you, “Who is Jesus?”, how would you answer?

Where was He going? Tyre Mark 7:24

A 2-3 days journey

Phoenician city/Syrian rule

Center of Baal worship

Under the _____ of God
Ezek. 26:1-6

Why was He going? Mark 7:24

- Refreshment?
- Withdrawal from religious hypocrisy?
- _____ of God Luke 10:13-15

What happened?

“Immediately a woman...heard of Him and came and fell down at His feet.” Mark 7:25

How is this woman described?

- Gentile
- Syrophenician

(continued on other side)

“Going to the Dogs” (continued)

What motivated her?

- Little _____ with an unclean spirit 7:25
- Have the _____ cast out of her 7:26
She was _____.
Jesus was the only one who could help her.

How desperate are you for Jesus to help you?

How did Jesus respond? _____ of Israel

Mark 7:27; Isaiah 49:6; Romans 1:16-17

Is Jesus a _____?

No. Jesus fulfilled the promise to Abraham Genesis 12:1-3
God’s plan is to bless the whole world through Jesus,
beginning with Israel.

How did the woman respond to Jesus?

- _____ faith Mark 7:28

What is Jesus _____ from people? Luke 18:1-10

When you are seeking to have the Lord help you, how do you respond when things are not happening the way you desire?

How did Jesus respond to the woman?

- Commended her _____
- _____ powerfully in her life
- _____ power over the demonic world

When you consider how you approach life, what responses can you expect from Jesus?

What changes do you need to make, in order that your faith can be commended and that Jesus would be free to powerfully work in your life?

What have we gained from Jesus “going to the dogs”?

“Going to the Dogs”

May 17, 2026

Mark 7:24-30

Pastor Todd McAllister

Who was going? Jesus:

- The powerful one Mark 4:41
- The questioned one Mark 2:7
- The endangered one Mark 3:6
- The misunderstood one Mark 3:21
- The popular one Mark 1:45
- The Son of God Mark 1:24

If someone asked you, “Who is Jesus?”, how would you answer?

Where was He going? Tyre Mark 7:24

A 2-3 days journey

Phoenician city/Syrian rule

Center of Baal worship

Under the judgment of God

Ezek. 26:1-6

Why was He going? Mark 7:24

- Refreshment?
- Withdrawal from religious hypocrisy?
- Purposes of God Luke 10:13-15

What happened?

“Immediately a woman...heard of Him and came and fell down at His feet.” Mark 7:25

How is this woman described?

- Gentile
- Syrophenician

(continued on other side)

“Going to the Dogs” (continued)

What motivated her?

- Little daughter with an unclean spirit 7:25
- Have the demon cast out of her 7:26

She was desperate.

Jesus was the only one who could help her.

How desperate are you for Jesus to help you?

How did Jesus respond? Priority of Israel

Mark 7:27; Isaiah 49:6; Romans 1:16-17

Is Jesus a racist?

No. Jesus fulfilled the promise to Abraham Genesis 12:1-3
God’s plan is to bless the whole world through Jesus,
beginning with Israel.

How did the woman respond to Jesus?

- Persistent faith Mark 7:28

What is Jesus desiring from people? Luke 18:1-10

When you are seeking to have the Lord help you, how do you respond when things are not happening the way you desire?

How did Jesus respond to the woman?

- Commended her faith
- Worked powerfully in her life
- Exercised power over the demonic world

When you consider how you approach life, what responses can you expect from Jesus?

What changes do you need to make, in order that your faith can be commended and that Jesus would be free to powerfully work in your life?

What have we gained from Jesus “going to the dogs”?